ANNOUNCEMENT OF VOLUNTEER JOB OPPORTUNITIES FOR COMMUNITY-LEVEL FACILITATORS

The Ministry of Water, through the Rufiji Basin Water Board, is implementing a project aimed at strengthening indigenous approaches to water source management and addressing climate change in the Usangu Basin. The project is funded by the Government of Japan through the World Bank.

The project is being implemented in 45 villages within Mbarali District, in the wards of Madibira, Kongoro, Igava, Chimala, Mapogolo, Mahongole, Ubaruku, Itamboleo, Mwatenga, Luhanga, Lugelele, Mawindi, and Ihai, located in Mbeya Region.

The project will support the establishment of Community Conservation Banks (COCOBA). To ensure successful implementation of the group formation activities, the project will engage community-level facilitators who will assist in the initial stages of forming and managing the groups. Therefore, the Board announces volunteer positions for community-level facilitators.
